

APPLICATION CHECKLIST (Corporation)

All liquor applications must be submitted through our online licensing portal. To do this, first apply for a business license by clicking on “Complete an Online License Application” under the Registration heading. Your license does not need to be fully approved to apply for your liquor license.

Once this is done, log onto your account and click on “Apply for a New Liquor License” in the Manage Supplemental Licenses box.

Required Documents

- A. Completed Colorado Liquor Retail License Application – DR 8400
- B. Copy of deed, lease, assignment of lease and consent to sublet, or other proof of possession of the premises that is signed by all parties. Possession documents must be in the name of the applicant, and the lease must reflect the physical address of the proposed premise.
- C. 8 ½ x 11 floorplan for each level of the building to be licensed. The diagram needs to reflect outside dimensions, the exterior and interior of the building, and where liquor will be served and/or stored. Show the address of the building on the perimeter of the drawing where the front entrance is located. Outline in bold black the licensed premises (area where liquor will be allowed).
- D. Financial Agreement:
 - a. Purchase contract (property, inventory, etc.)
 - b. Financial obligations (mortgages, notes, etc.)
 - c. Documents showing any financial interest of other entities
