

WESTMINSTER
Parks, Recreation & Libraries

2023 Westy Tree Sale

LARGE SHADE TREES

Northern Catalpa: Fast growing, large heart-shaped leaves, clusters of white flowers, seed pods resembling vanilla beans. Mature height 40-60ft, Mature width 20-40ft.

Hackberry: Drought tolerant, few insect or disease issues, attractive tree bark. Mature height 40-60 ft., Mature width 40-50 ft.

Chinkapin Oak: Great tree for Westminster, pyramidal shape, somewhat rare in the city. Mature height 50-80 ft., Mature width 50-70 ft.

WESTMINSTER
Parks, Recreation & Libraries

Hardy Rubber Tree: Drought tolerant, pyramidal form, tough, thick glossy green leaves, unusual.

Mature height 40-60 ft., Mature width 30-50 ft.

Tuliptree: Tulip shaped flowers, large shade tree, unusual in Westminster.

Mature height 70-90 ft., Mature width 35-50 ft.

Bur Oak: Drought tolerant, low maintenance – long lived, somewhat rare in the city.

Mature height 70-80 ft., Mature width 80 ft.

WESTMINSTER
Parks, Recreation & Libraries

Discovery Elm: Resistance to Dutch Elm Disease, hardy, umbrella-shaped crown.

Mature height 60-80 ft., Mature width 40-60 ft.

SMALL ORNAMENTAL TREES

Hot Wings Maple: Bright red winged seeds in summer, nice fall color, tolerant of difficult growing conditions. Mature height 15-18 ft., Mature width 15-18 ft.

Turkish Filbert: Pyramidal form, yellow/red fall color, very drought tolerant, rare in Westminster. Mature height 30-40 ft., Mature width 20-30 ft.

WESTMINSTER
Parks, Recreation & Libraries

Rocky Mountain Glow Maple: Native to Rocky Mountains, intense fall color, drought tolerant.

Mature height 25 ft., Mature width 15 ft.

American Hornbeam: Year-round interest, yellow to orange fall color, rare in Westminster.

Mature height 20-30 ft., Mature width 20-30 ft.

Persian Spire Ironwood: Red – orange – yellow fall color, drought tolerant, very unique in Westminster.

Mature height 20-40 ft., Mature width 15-30 ft.

WESTMINSTER
Parks, Recreation & Libraries

Gambel Oak (Multi-stem): Drought tolerant, native, provide food and shelter for variety of wildlife.

Mature height 15-25 ft., Mature width 10-15 ft.

Ivory Silk Tree Lilac: Impressive flowers, tolerates clay soil, attracts hummingbirds and butterflies.

Mature height 20-25 ft., Mature width 15-20 ft.

